ADMINISTRATION

Message from the Headmistress

As the days of the 1990-1991 school year slowly come to a close, they gently take their place in our memories. It is my hope that in years to come you will relive with joy your days at the Sacred Heart.

As you begin a new phase of your life, remember that you will always be a part of the Sacred Heart family, not only to wear the uniform and to acquire knowledge but, more importantly, to carry with you the values stressed so much here at the City House. As an alumna, be ever mindful of those things that are even more important than math or history. Strive to be strong, strong enough to be always gentle and thus to be your best self.

M. Johnson, R.S.C.J.

... Come, my friends,
'Tis not too late to seek a newer world.
Push off, and sitting well in order smite
The sounding furrows; for my purpose holds
To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths
Of all the western stars, until I die.
It may be that the gulfs will wash us down:
It may be we shall touch the Happy Isles,
And see the great Achilles, whom we knew.
Tho' much is taken, much abides; and tho'
We are not now that strength which in old days
Moved earth and heaven; that which we are, we are;
One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

JUDITH MONICA HAMBURGER

THIS was the question my entire future rested on? All I ever said was "NOW I HAVE A HACKSAW! HO! HO! HO!" and then I told Omar not to call me stupid and to stop looking at me; but he said that he wasn't looking at me: he was looking at something 30 degrees away from me. Oh stop this stupid ride - I want to get off! The judge interrupted my thoughts: "Judi, would you care to field this question?" "uh uh" "I insist. So would the prosecuting attorney please repeat the question?" "Which author during the Renaissance wrote two plays which were at first considered blasphemous but then were acknowledged as being brilliant ...?" In typical JUVENILE DELINQUENT candor I responded: "I don't know because all I've done for the past hour is wonder why your hair looks like an SOS pad." I don't know how it ends. But I am content to simply bask in the memories of Popious Aud and King Les. Ah, it is so "sweet to be an idiot". FAME '90

The madhouse buried a fallen star/ We stole the power's rose/ How silly the Untouchables are/ How little we do or know/ Dark-haired angels sang and cried/ Of the chaos in this strange world/ Then one day Ching Sze arrived/ And we lied like scurvy girls/ The screams, songs, drinks, dancing, and curses/ Are friendly memories of tolling bells/ The tavern people of these verses/ Giggled as they passed the Gates of Hell/ Fern remembers the forsaken I loved/ The Python's hiss, Facilitator's kiss/ The holy tears and blood soiled the white dove/ And I stood alone. O ignorant bliss/ Happy Eaters rudely burst out in song/ About the Cheshire Cat's smile; Chucky's lisp/ While Bill and Gail laughed as they mowed the lawn/ These dreams, saints, and sinners I'll always miss/ The red tapes played and the Peanut's weird/ Drooling men with messy whiskers clashed/ Jay hacked and Kawennotie leered/ Josef shaved his head. The Fair-Haired laughed/ Ray was bold as the end neared/ And Beta kindly collected my tears . . .

I would really like to open up these grad comments with some kind of witty expression to remember me by and the only one that comes to mind is an old 1840 Norwegian saying, it is as follows: Tacituna Gatieulin Naelstroom piceal mimes, and to be honest I have no clue what it means! The only thing that I really don't like is people who think that they know everything and annoy those of us who do. (It's not easy being perfect huh Sandra?) Pathways 89' with Izzy AKAYoko. Where the good times and the friendships last forever - never die before you reach the last step of the stairs - Remember those last torturing minutes to the end of class - strange blue people on the bus - laughs along the corridor - wild place! crazy stuff! - What is there for lunch? It is french fries! Remember the fun. Remember everything you learned - of course! Sometimes teachers are not monsters - The bells made me a little bit deaf - Buzzy time! Tuesday Mass. Never forget the running to get to class before it was too late - Oh! It is desk tidying - Pull up your socks! - I have beautiful memories of my school, and I love this place - TCHAU! OLA! Como vai? During the two years of Sacred Heart, I had a lot of fun. Friendships and love are the things which hold the school together. General assembly is blue like the skies. Every day I am always very, very busy . . . carry on! Tomorrow is another happy day. Memories of the fun things. Memories of the studies? What do you mean? Let's do homework at the last minute, oh! Those long stairs, one day they will kill me. What am I going to be? Who Knows? Caring for others is all that matters. Long days, hard work, songs at mass, people who are always there when needed, laughs, clubs are one of the things that makes this small school feel like a big family. love and peace to the world. I can't count the minutes for the bell to ring. tchau!

"A long time ago in a galaxy far, far away . . ." "Mebe yeh" meant more than it seemed and it was so "sweet to be an idiot" with Moe, Ray and Judi. Meanwhile, illiterate badges were in and HENRY V was cut from the cinemas: "O perdurable shame!" Judi, my confidante: lunacy kept us sane. Clare, my crutch: now we must learn to walk on our own. Sacred Heart: thanks for the TLC. A suave handshake goes out to Mishy, coloured chalk to KaWing, and profound thoughts to Marina, Angie, Sam and Thragg. Hugs to Livi. Anna, Peanut, Mrs. Ferraro and Miss deM: Stratford obsession . . . Shakespeare rules! Grads: "May the force be with you . . . always." And, Pam, I still have a flower on my chin. Secondary V retreat

At a time when the world was mourning the beginning of the Gulf War, the class of "91" was in St. Jerome, praying for the war to end. We started out on a good note, looking forward to spending time together, away from all troubles and away from the noise. It was our last chance to get to know one another, and to get to know ourselves, and that was exactly what we did. Snow ball fights and pillow fights, skits, movies and songs truly brought us together as a whole . . . We discovered the power of one through Miss Mastro's stories, Mr. Shaw's songs, Mrs. Flynn's touching poem, we were able to let down our guards and learn that an occasional tear is not a sign of weakness, but of freedom of spirit. Basically, we gathered strength from one another; the strength that we will use as we lead the world into the twenty-first century.

*All are architects of Fate, working in these walls of Time.
Some with massive deeds and great, some with ornaments of rhyme.
Nothing useless is or low; each thing in its place is best,
And what seems but idle show strengthens and supports the rest.
Our todays and yesterdays are the block with which we build.*

HARDEY

HARDEY HOUSE was lucky enough to receive the first house jobs of the year. This was hard to do and even though we took a long time to get started, Hardey Day was very special with our House Game. "Come on, every House is here, open up your ears..." Finally everything went smoothly. During my three years here, one word that reminds me of Hardey House is Family. This is because of the house members and Mr. Kousik and Mrs. Sabourin's support. For the house points, there's still hope - wait and see! ORANGE POWER!

The date was September 7, 1990 - the first FIGA. I was nervous about the prefect skit. Would my inflatable turtle evoke any reaction or generate any response? DID IT EVER! Sheldon responded with unparalleled excitement - that special GREEN energy we possess and emanate. A true Sheldon moment! Sheldonites are super, spirited, and always smiling. We are groovy, giving, and gifted. All these special qualities and our mighty and enduring mascot, the turtle, make us enthusiastic and happy to be involved in both our House and the school.

"We've got no troubles, life is bubbles, under the sea!" Thank you to each and every member of Stuart House who has, with her help and support, made this song come true for me. Team

The Bantam Basketball team has just finished a successful season. Even though we did not make it to the championships, we still played very well. It was not a matter of winning each game, but a matter of having fun and enjoying ourselves. Everyone played exceptionally well. Many thanks to Mrs. Cumming and to all the parents who encouraged us throughout the games. Go Sacred Heart!

The volleyball team had an enjoyable and fulfilling season. Even though we did not win all the time, we placed in the top eight teams in the city, the best show SHSM volleyball team has ever done. We were always high-spirited and enthusiastic to play. We would like to offer special thanks to Mr. Kousik and Mr. Shaw for being such great coaches and for putting up with all of us. Sorry about the glasses, Mr. Shaw and Mr. Kousik, soften those serves. We are looking forward to next year.

After this season the team has decided to have a water skiing option. Although the conditions were generally warm and wet, we still managed to hold our own. In the Juvenile category, Leslie Gold placed second and Rachel Cardone placed fifth. Congratulations and ski on!

The Bantam-Midget Soccer Team had a great season this year. The team members played their best. They worked well together and displayed good team spirit. Even though we did not win any awards, we had a good time playing soccer. The team showed their remarkable talent on the field, handling the ball the best way possible. Eagerly, they look forward to next year.

Field hockey team

This year was by far the most successful for those fortunate enough to be part of the highly acclaimed Sacred Heart field hockey team. Led by a strong offense, an unbreakable defence, and spirit that just wouldn't quit, the team reached the semi-finals virtually undefeated. BE-LUGA FOREVER!

On Friday, February 15, 1991, the Vocal Ensemble left for Toronto to attend the Independent School's Music Festival. The first two days we had practices, but plenty of free time. The choir featured about five hundred students from Eastern Canada. The concert was held on Sunday and was a huge success!

Tree planting ceremony

On May 24, 1991, the graduating class and the teachers gathered to plant the sapling presented to Mother Johnson at DASHABUSTADD. It was a pleasant ceremony enhanced by beautiful poetry readings.

GYM DEMONSTRATION

On April 11, 1991, the Gym Demonstration went on a "Quest for the ultimate work-out". The G.A.A.'s were the MC's and the different clubs demonstrated all that they had learned all year. The hard work really paid off for the Gym Club, Highland Dance Club, Fitness Club, Self-Defense Club, and Modern Dance Club. The gym demonstration was a great success because of the hard work of everyone who was involved. A special thank-you to Mrs. Cumming, Miss Vaupshas, and the two moderators.

Grease is the word: poodle-skirts and ponytails. leather jackets and ducktails . . . This year's talent show was one to remember! The acts were wonderful and the backstage crew's patience and support was indispensable to our success. But most of all, I would like to thank the committee and the M.C.s for all the hours sacrificed to brainstorming and practising. Remember - we go together . . .

INTERNATIONAL DAY

Once again, International Day took its course, but the product was quite different from other years. Previously, it had consisted of ethnic skits and dances, but this year it was a short drama. Choreographies, lights, and an "emergency" sound system, along with bickering humans and a pompous alien council, were packed into a twenty minute play which contemplated the idea of university. Preparations for the November 7th production began the first week of school in September, and the perseverance and enthusiasm of everyone involved resulted in a very successful performance. Thank you all!

DRAMA PRODUCTION: "WRITE FOR ME"

Cast

*All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players:
They have their exits and their entrances;
And one man in his time plays many parts,
His acts being seven ages. At first the infant,
Mewling and puking in the nurse's arms.
And then the whining school-boy, with his satchel
And shining morning face, creeping like snail
Unwillingly to school.*

FOR ALL ETERNITY

Months of togetherness we both have shared,
Times of happiness
that cannot be compared.
The special moments
spent with laughter and tears,
Our shared secrets
Our innermost fears.
These memories remain
In my heart and my mind.
A friendship like ours is so hard to find.
This precious gift
you have given to me,
will last me for life,
For all eternity.

CATS

I had one not too long ago
A beautiful cat named Thriver
I always loved her so
I thought she'd be there forever
But one morning I woke,
The rain pouring more than ever,
My mother came in and spoke
The words I even now remember
"There was a drunk driver
Going much too quick
He didn't see Thriver
And unfortunately she was hit."
Now I have a new cat
Her name is Bubbler
Even though I love her
I'll always have room in my heart for Thriver.

QUARREL

Angers rise,
Silence falls.
Tempers become lost,
Voices find new heights.
Tears are shed.
Words are said that cause the heart to bleed.
Apologies are offered.
Forgiveness is granted.
The storm has passed.

ARMOUR

On a grassy cliff
By the shore of the sea
Sat a child and his friend,
Full of wonder,
Full of hope.

Imagination is their armour,
Friendship is their coat of arms
To protect them from
All the evils that lurk in dark places,
At the far reaches of our minds.

IT'S OK

I'm looking for a teddy-bear
Who's soft and cuddly
Cuz my arms are weak
from hugging others,
And I need someone to hug me.

I always try to laugh and play,
To keep from bringing
you down,
But my face is
too tired to smile today,
And my heart just wants to frown.

I try to be so strong and tough
And take away your pain.
But I guess I'm just not good enough
As my tears fall down like rain.

You smile and nod, but look down on me,
And you say I should be more cheery
I know how weak you Think I must be.
But there's more to me
than what you see.
I'll admit right now
that I'm not very tough,
So I don't need a New bear who's fancy
and gruff.
Just my funny old Teddy who's losing his fluff.
Who'll love me and tell me that I'm good enough.

CAPTURED

Patterned pictures, smiling faces
Photographs of far-off places
But pictures fade,
And so do we
The years go by
And our corners curl
Every while, a smile is gone
But the pictures Go on and on.

PRISM

The little man stands
By his easel,
His brush poised for a moment
... then it happens:
A stroke of imagination
Blends its colors,
Creating images of Yellow
Green
Purple
And gold.
The little man turns his head.
He invites me
To hold his hand.
On straw-whistle winds,
We drive into a world of Princes Butterflies Castles
And ponies.
We climb the stairs
And peer down onto the real word,
A world of Black hate
Greed Murder
And violence.
Come, take me away,
Little man
... make me a rainbow.

PERHAPS

Alone
on the street lies he who has no home, no place to go back to.
Here,
children played people passed but didn't see how cold
this lonely street can be,
and they say
the sun is shining; God is smiling on us.
Perhaps they better look again.

XIONZAULY

The player of tunes
Journeys within my mind,
From peak to peak
He searches for those I need to find.

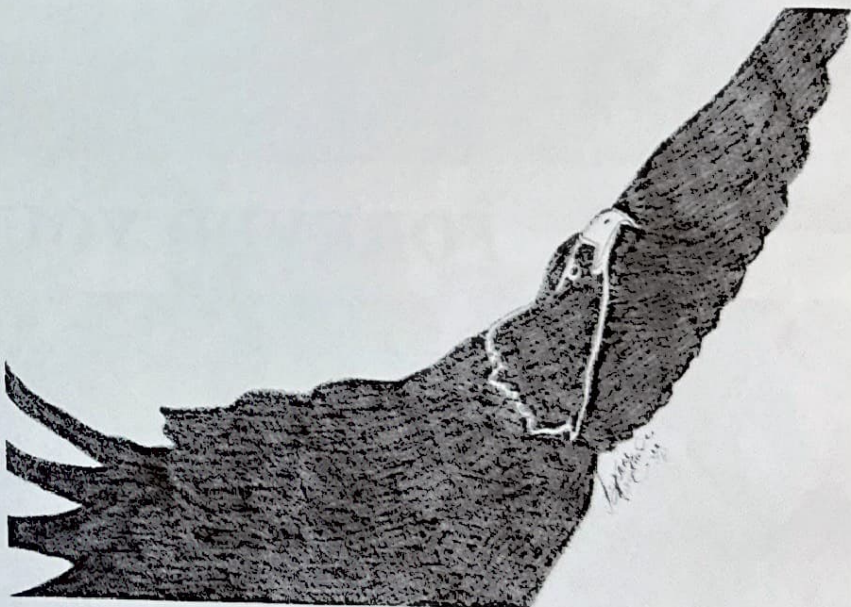

As he walks upon the dew,
The fences he saunters through:
The trees nod assent
His spirit remains bent

Perceptions are wrong.
Illusions are strong.
The eyes open wide;
To see two different sides.

New faces
New names
A new set of games . . .

A secret solution
To overcome mind pollution.

AN ODE TO VW MICROBUSES

Through the wildlands of deception
The eyes grapple
With unceasing Force.

The bus putts its way along the ruts
Spitting out its fumes of love
While rust eats away the struggling body.

Sage brush sweeps away the pimples of time
Mud grips the jack rabbit foot

A trickle erodes the spider stone.

Creaking of voices
Though the cavernous plane
Filled with deer droppings gone insane.

Transported cabin
Locked secure and tight
Survived the untold dinosaur flight.

Fossils hidden by the ground
Heartless trees make a multitude of sound the wind shivers by.
I cannot see the sky.

Business:

Overexposed film, editing, underexposed film, editing, broken cameras, editing and mistakes. These are only some of the problems which the memory book encountered throughout the year. However, we had a great time while working closely together up to four times a week. We talked alot, laughed alot and ate alot! Each one of us took part in every stage of production, from the photography and planning to the designing and finalizing. I commend the efforts of those who helped out whenever they could (Jen, Claudia, Athy, Lone, Izzy, Audrey, Maureen, Brigid, Nad and Jodi that means you). Also, Laura and I would especially like to thank Claire and Roisin for their hard work and dedication. This book would not be as great as it is without them. Lastly, I would like to thank Mrs. Dianne Jacobs whose typing, organizing, occasional treats and constant support got us through it. Thanks Mommy!
